Peregrini Lindisfarne Landscape Partnership
Drawing and painting workshop led by artist Rose Strang

Lindisfarne 13th and 14th August 2016

Saturday 9:30 until 4:00, (lunch break 12:30 to 1:30pm)

Sunday 10.30 until 4:00 (lunch break 12:30 to 1:30pm)

This one-day outdoor drawing and painting class is open to people at all levels of experience.

After an introductory talk and demonstration on drawing and painting tips and techniques, Rose will continue to offer individual feedback and guidance throughout the day to each participant. Don't worry if you have no prior experience, this is an informal, encouraging workshop - and a great way to enjoy the beautiful scenery of Lindisfarne!

The workshop location is 'The Heugh' the small hill at the south end of the island with excellent views in all directions. The Lookout Tower on the Heugh will offer shelter from rain if necessary.

Sketchbooks, pencils, brushes, acrylic paints and stretched canvas will be provided. Participants may bring their own drawing or painting materials if they prefer (However, oil paints are not recommended for beginners since they require experience and take a long time to dry).

Please wear warm, rain proof clothes and comfortable shoes or trainers.

Please note that the track up the Heugh may be muddy and is uneven.

There are public benches at this location and we will also provide a few folding chairs.

Meet at Holy Island Car Park at 9:30 am on Saturday 13th and at
10:30 am on Sunday 14th August.

The painting venue is a walk of approximately 15 minutes from the car park. (You will have to pay the full day car park fee which is £4.40. Unfortunately this cannot be reimbursed).

Programme:

Introductory talk and demonstration of drawing techniques and tips;

Creating a series of quick sketches of the surrounding views;

Selecting a view to focus on for the afternoon's painting;
